Sample Company HR Policy

Training sample — replace with your organization's approved policies.

Purpose

This fictional document demonstrates how a customer-support chatbot can retrieve information from department policy PDFs. It is not an official company policy.

Leave requests

- Submit leave requests through the organization's approved HR system or process.
- Include requested dates and a brief reason where the process requires one.
- Managers review requests according to staffing needs and applicable company policy.
- This sample does not specify annual, sick, casual, or other leave entitlements.

Attendance and working hours

- Follow the working hours and attendance recording process communicated by your organization.
- For a missing or incorrect attendance entry, notify your manager or HR with the relevant date and details.
- Do not alter attendance records on behalf of another employee.

Onboarding and employee records

- Complete onboarding steps communicated by HR.
- Submit employee documents only through approved, secure company channels.
- Employee records should be accessed only by authorized personnel for legitimate work purposes.

Benefits and workplace support

- For questions about benefits, eligibility, or employee documentation, contact HR.
- Confirm eligibility and benefit amounts using current official company records.
